Hi Bob,

Here is the revised formaldehyde TK chapter. As I mentioned earlier, my Word and End Note programs crashed several times. At one time I lost the file I am working on it. I was able to recover it with more than of the changes/edits I have made. Here is the final version.

I addressed most of the comments from earlier reviewers (Ghazi, Kate, Bob and Brian). I added a paragraph from Ravi regarding endogenous formaldehyde levels which involve some calculations which I put in the footnote.

I have a clean version and one with track changes. Go for the clean one.

Let me know how it reads. I will be happy to address any questions that you have or from any reviewers.

Today is my compressed day. Have a good weekend.
